

伯特利神學院
Bethel Bible Seminary

Ray Bakke Centre for Urban Transformation (RBC) of Bethel Bible Seminary (伯特利神學院), is now looking for suitable candidates to join us.

Research Co-ordinator, Urban Ministry

Ray Bakke Centre for Urban Transformation (RBC) <http://rbc.bethelhk.org>
Bethel Bible Seminary (BBS) <http://www.bethelhk.org>

 Open to both full time and half time applicants

The Role

1. Co-ordinate a portfolio of research projects in Urban Ministry from design, funding applications, implementation, and development to publications or other forms of dissemination.
2. Establish a framework and system to promote and develop research in Urban Ministry
3. Report to the Director of RBC, expected to work with RBC team and faculty, doctoral students, ministry partners and researchers from other institutions.

Desired Skills & Experience

1. Graduate degree, PhD or MPhil in social sciences preferred
2. 3-5 years of solid experience in research, project management and funding application
3. Experience with qualitative and quantitative survey design and implementation
4. Experience with statistical software such as SPSS/STATA.
5. Superior communication skills in English & Chinese, both written and verbal
6. Self-motivated and highly organized.
7. Open to collaborate and work with people of different background and competency levels.

Compensation & Benefits

1. Compensation based on qualification and relevant experience
2. Benefit package for all full-time or half time, regular employees at BBS
3. Medical benefits, annual leave, etc.

If you are interested in applying for this position, please send your CV to recruit@bethelhk.org with details of your experience, availability and salary expectation. Personal data collected will be used for recruitment purpose only.